

INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Applicant thanks Examiner Salomon for the courtesy of a telephone interview on March 7, 2008, to discuss the rejection of the current claims under 35 U.S.C. § 103. During the interview, Applicants asserted that the cited references do not render obvious the claims as currently amended. In addition, the Abdelnur reference was discussed and Applicant submitted that Abdelnur describes merely cosmetic and surface formatting a of graphical user interface. The Examiner advised he would further consider the matter upon formal submission of this response. However, the Examiner indicated a further search of the art may be needed and no agreement was reached regarding patentability.
